

Musk and Amber

GALLERY

Located at the Berges du Lac in Tunis, the Musk and Amber Gallery is a meeting point, where design, art and fashion from all over the world intersect and intermingle, through prestigious local and international brands, rigorously selected. and narrated by founder Lamia Bousnina Ben Ayed.

In this constantly changing loft, Musk & Amber brings together Tunisian and foreign designers and artists, as well as unique pieces inspired by Tunisian heritage, made to measure by talented local artisans. Precious fashion items and home accessories of various styles are arranged there to create an ensemble that is both distinguished and cozy.

Each object plays a decisive role in this sophisticated staging, like an invitation to discover the particular and personalized world of Musk & Amber, transforming the visitor's experience into a beautiful getaway.

Musk & Amber aspires to work for the promotion of culture while satisfying the appetites of an increasingly demanding and knowledgeable clientele. Thus, by organizing one-off events such as contemporary art exhibitions, signing sessions with writers and other cultural happenings, the gallery hopes to federate a community of people sharing a common sense of beauty, while promoting an art of living. at the crossroads of east and west.

